OPERATION
CHRISTMAS CHILD
DEADLINE IS NOVEMBER 13th!!!!

Pastor Notes

I want what I want and I want it now! I am sure most of you like me still have that mentality tucked away somewhere and bring it out on occasions. Children are just honest enough to do it all the time! This past month as been a learning season for me; I am tired of this virus that has made me less than 100 percent. I was tired of it the day it started. Nonetheless, there is nothing that I can do about it except take my meds and pray. That's where the tension lies, sometimes we are faced with circumstances that force us to attempt to resolve the tension that occurs when God says no or simply not now. If God would just listen to me, He would know how to run the world better! That sounds foolish, but I have found in my life and if you are completely transparent, in yours as well, it is the attitude that we carry into our prayer chamber. I am convinced that God sometimes forces us to accept that He knows best. I am sure Abraham didn't fully understand why he was walking up the mountain to kill his son. He is in control. Our peace is not found in anything other than the realization that by His wounds we are healed. I am His child and no matter what the circumstances, I always will be. I am ready for this virus to be gone though.

A Word from the Staff

Josh Spivey – Associate Pastor of Praise & Worship

What another amazing time of worship the TRBC family had. It's so nice to worship the Lord with my church family. Speaking of my church family, I'm doing pretty well of learning everyone's names. Now, it's a matter of figuring out who belongs to whom!

On a serious not, I would like to thank you all again for your hospitality as my family and I have transitioned into this great ministry. Continue to pray for our house to sale. We are so ready to live in this great community so we can be close to you all, have people over and make visits. Pray that the right people will come along to see our home. The good Lord is all knowing and knows our need. In His time, He will bless again!

On another serious note, continue to pray for our pastor as he recovers from his illness. Continue to pray for the healing hand of the Lord. Continue to pray for Christy as she is dealing with alot right now. Pray for their children, Solomon and Isaiah. They do not understand why their daddy can't play with them as he normally does. We know in the end, the Lord will prevail and Wade will be healed! He Lord is good and His mercies are everlasting!

Judy Wilbanks – Outreach Director

God is at work all around us and we just praise Him for all He is doing at TRBC. We are so thankful for the new families He is bringing to us to be a part of our church family. Let's continue to pray for these families as they become even more involved and find their place of service. Also continue to invite your friends, family and co-workers as we worship each week. Reminder: we will again be ordering our Christmas Poinsettias to help us decorate the church and for you to take home and enjoy. There will be a form in the coming handouts in November for you to order in memory or in honor of a loved one. Watch the Tribute for more info next week.

Kristy Milton - Children's Director

Hey kids. Don't forget during the week to practice being a "Good Samaritan." One way to do that is by putting together your Operation Christmas Child box. This week's verse: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."
